GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY.

Eighteen years after the scholarly William Nast had been appointed to preach among the Germans of Cincinnati, a group of German Methodist preachers in Illinois manifested their interest in education by establishing in the fall of 1854 an institution of learning in connection with an English College in Quincy, Illinois.

For ten years this earliest High School of German Methodism rendered efficient service. Meanwhile the Civil War had imposed a new burden upon the church; that of caring for the many children, whose fathers had been slain on the battlefield. Fired with this lofty purpose and having the noble institutions of Francke in Halle in mind, the promoters of the Quincy institution decided to found the "Western Orphan Asylum and Educational Institute" in Warrenton, Mo., where a large estate had been secured for this purpose. This "Institute" was opened October 3, 1864. The charter was obtained in February 1865. The name of the corporation was legally changed in March 1870 to "Central Wesleyan College and Orphan Asylum." In 1884 the College and the Asylum were separated, and each institution has carried on its special work under its own Board of Trustees and in its own plant ever since. The present revised charter was granted October 30, 1908, and provides for the union of Central Wesleyan College and the German College of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, which union was legally consummated in June 1909.

PURPOSE.

The object of Central Wesleyan College as set forth in the charter is "to educate the youth of the land in the arts and sciences, ancient and modern languages, theology and philosophy, and such other branches as are usually taught in the higher and highest institutions of learning." On this broad basis the school was established and has continued to the present. The charter further stipulates that "the institution shall be open to students of either sex, possessing a good, moral character, without regard to their religious profession." It will thus be seen that while the school is denominational in the sense that nearly all the Trustees are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, it is not sectarian in any sense of the term. It is the earnest purpose of Central Wesleyan College to give to young men and women the very best academic and collegiate training under positive Christian influences. It maintains that the ultimate aim of education is well grounded Christian character.

Central Wesleyan College is a member of the College Union of Missouri, a group of the leading Colleges and Universities of the State. Its curricula are up to the standard. and its work is fully accredited.

LOCATION.

Central Wesleyan College is located in Warrenton, the County Seat of Warren County, Missouri, a city of 1,400 inhabitants. It is on the main line of the Wabash railroad, 60 miles west of St. Louis and 217 miles east of Kansas City. For healthfulness and beauty of surroundings the location is unsurpassed. Situated on the dividing ridge between the Missouri and the Mississippi rivers at an elevation of 900 feet above the sea, the natural drainage is perfect.

During the past few years marked improvements have been made both in the business part of the city and in the residence districts. Beautiful homes, extensive lawns and abundant shade trees, five churches, good public schools and the exceptional advantages offered by a strong college make Warrenton an ideal place for residence.

The college campus of 23 acres is midway between the Warrenton and Truesdale stations, a half mile from either. Delightful shade is furnished by native oaks, hickories and elms, to which other beautiful and rare trees have been added from time to time. The buildings are conveniently situated with reference to each other on both sides of Main Street, the historic old "Boone's Lick Road. On the southern part of the campus are located the athletic field and the tennis courts.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings on the campus are seven in number, all of brick and nearly all erected in recent years to displace earlier frame buildings and to meet the demands of the growing school.

The College Building, erected in 1874 is a well arranged three story building containing the college office, nine recitation rooms, the library, the reading room and four society halls.

Kessler Hall is a fine two story building erected in memory of Dr. J. L. Kessler in 1893. Here are located the chapel and the departments of music, art and oratory. The chapel is a beautiful hall on the first floor with a seating capacity of 350. It is used for daily chapel exercises, for concerts and for lectures. In the rear are to be found the studios of the teachers of music, and on the second floor nine practice rooms and the art room.

Gymnasium and Science Hall. This beautiful building, 64 by 84 feet in size, was opened in May 1909. In the basement are located the heating plant, the bath room, the scientific laboratories, the museum and a large lecture room. These rooms are well lighted and ventilated. The floors are cement. On the second floor there are four rooms in the corners set apart for the physical director, for an armory, and for dressing rooms. The great main floor is free for athletic work. The roof is supported by splendid steel trusses resting on steel columns. The running track and gallery, suspended from the trusses, encircles the room ten feet from the floor. The gymnasium is supplied with modern apparatus for physical culture and the hard maple floor is laid off for various indoor games.

Andrew Eisenmayer Hall. This is a large three story dormitory for men. It was erected in 1900 and was largely the gift of Mr. Andrew Eisenmayer of Trenton, Ill. It is equipped with electric light and steam heat. A suite of seven rooms on the first floor is occupied by one of the professors and his family. All the rooms in the building are large and airy and are neatly furnished. Sixty students can be accommodated.

The Ladies' Home is a beautiful three story building erected in 1893. During the year 1910 extensive alterations were made which have added much to the appearance and the serviceableness of the building. The entire basement now practically above ground is occupied by the kitchen and the beautiful dining room, where 150 persons can be accommodated. On the first floor are located the rooms for the Superintendent and his family, the parlors and a number of students' rooms. These, with the present rooms in the second and third stories, will accommodate about fifty lady students. The entire building is neatly furnished and equipped with modern conveniences.

The Annex, erected 1910, stands about 20 feet north of the Ladies' Home. It is built of brick 48x48 in size, and two stories above the basement. The annex contains cold storage cellars, laundry, bakery, provision house and eight living rooms.

The College Church seating about 700 is used by the College for lectures, concerts, and larger gatherings during the school year and especially during commencement week. It is equipped with a splendid $2,500 pipe organ, which is used by the advanced organ pupils.

The Heating Plant located on the lowest point on the campus supplies all the buildings except the gymnasium and the church with steam heat.

The College Cottage, a frame building, is occupied by the janitors and engineers. It can be converted into an emergency hospital on short notice, should an occasion arise for this change.

ENDOWMENT.

The expenses of the college are met in part by tuition fees, which are very moderate, but chiefly by the income from the permanent endowment funds. Several chairs have been specifically provided for by generous friends of the institution and bear the name of the chief donors. Many other good men and women have contributed to the general endowment fund. The entire endowment amounting now to $157,000 is securely invested. The principal may never be diverted from the purpose for which it was intended. The interest may be used only for current expenses. The trustees have launched a financial campaign to raise $100.000 for a much needed new college building and for the endowment fund. It is hoped that this semi-centennial fund will be secured by 1914, when the college will have completed her first half century of usefulness.

LABORATORIES AND MUSEUM.

The laboratories have been moved from their former limited quarters and are now installed in the Gymnasium and Science Hall.

The Biological Laboratory is equipped with compound and dissecting microscopes and the necessary reagents, apparatus, models and collections for biological instruction. There is a very valuable Botanical collection numbering 500 specimens all properly mounted and classified. For the study of Anatomy and Physiology the laboratory is supplied with models, skeletons, both articulated and disarticulated, and a well selected series of dry and alcholic preparations for illustrating animal life.

The Chemical Laboratory is equipped with 40 student desk-lockers, supplied with water and all needed apparatus. Large hoods provide for the removal of noxious gases. A good supply of chemicals, glass ware and other apparatus is kept on hand constantly. Equipment is provided for general, analytical and organic chemistry. Adjoining the laboratory is the lecture room with graded seats.

The Geological Laboratory and Museum. The facilities for studying geology are excellent. Besides the government and state reports, reference texts and maps, the museum, numbering 3000 specimens, is so arranged as to be easily accessible for study and class use. The very fine collections of fossils and minerals are especially valuable. The specimens are divided into three groups; the first group labeled according to Dana's Manual of Mineralogy; the second group labeled according to the United States Geological Series of Educational Rocks; the third group is the historical geological collection representing the various ages. During the last year a fine collection of rare carboniferous fossils was donated by Mr. Carl Sauer. Valuable additions to the museum were also made by Dr. Kern, Messrs. Walker and Hintz and others.

The Physical Laboratory. Thanks to the liberality of the friends of the school, the Physical Laboratory has recently been equipped with the necessary apparatus for the teaching of advanced as well as elementary physics. The Laboratory adjoins the lecture room and is supplied with work-tables for the students. Among the most important additions are the following; 6 Compound Microscopes, 12 Dissecting Microscopes, 2 Calorimeters, 3 D'Arsonal Galvanometers, 3 Voltmeters, 1 Ammeter, 6 Resistance Boxes and some apparatus for Light and Sound.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

The Library occupies a large room on the first floor of the College Building. The number of volumes in the Library aside from the government reports is 8,500. These are carefully classified and are catalogued in cards after the usual library methods. Thanks to the generous annual contribution of Dr. H. A. Geitz, the United States History alcove is especially well stocked. The leading reference works and current magazines are on hand. The library is in charge of one of the Professors and is open all day during the school year. Every effort is made to make the library of value to the students for collateral reading and for research work. During the year several hundred volumes were added to the Library, partly by gifts from Dr. Ott, and others, partly by purchase. Among these is the new International Encyclopedia, latest edition in half Russia binding.

The Reading Room is located on the second floor of the College Building. It is supplied with an ample reference library and the leading daily, weekly and monthly perodicals. The incidental fee of $2.00 a term entitles the student to the use of the Reading Room and Library as well as the Gymnasium.

PUBLICATIONS.

The Central Wesleyan Star is published monthly during the school year. It is the organ of the Faculty and the students. Its object is to give information in regard to the condition of the College in general and, in a measure, to represent the various departments. It also contains original articles on education by competent writers and serves as a medium through which the ex-students exchange views and keep up their friendly relation with one another and with their alma mater. Subscription price, fifty cents per annum.

The Central Wesleyan Bulletin is published quarterly by the Faculty. One of these issues is the annual catalogue number published in May. The other issues contain programs, announcements and official reports. Copies of the Bulletins will be sent free to any address.

The Annual. For several years the Senior Class has published a bound volume called the "Pulse." It reflects college life from the students' view point and is an invaluable souvenir of college days. Price fifty-cents.

GOVERNMENT AND DISCIPLINE.

Students are required to matriculate before they are entitled to the privileges of the school. Matriculation will be regarded as a pledge on the part of the students to comply with all the rules and regulations of the school.

Tuition for the term must be paid in advance. If a student is absent over two weeks at one time on account of sickness or for some other sufficient reason, proper reduction will be made on tuition. In no case, however, will the incidental fee be returned.

The government and discipline of the College are vested in the Faculty of the College. Discipline is in accordance with sound, moral and religious principles. Conduct inconsistent with the good order of the institution, if repeated after admonition, is followed by suspension, dismissal or expulsion.

In general, students are treated as self-respecting gentlemen and ladies, and are held to the requirements and accorded the liberties of good society. It is the aim of the Faculty to develop in the student the principles of self-government. It requires good conduct and faithful work and relies upon the honor and moral sense of the student to secure these ends. No one will be permitted to remain in the school whose connection with it is injurious to others or unprofitable to himself.

The improprieties of deportment of which the faculty takes account include the following: Absence from recitation, chapel or from the city without excuse, and from church services more than once a Sabbath; absence from rooms at night or attendance at such entertainments as do not meet the approval of the Faculty; non-observance of study hours from 7:30 to 11:45 a. m., and 1:30 to 4:30 p. m., and from 7 to 9:30 p. m.; the use of ardent spirits; the use of tobacco on the College grounds or in the buildings; card playing; theatre-going; gambling; rude or ungentlemanly or unladylike conduct in or about the College Buildings, on the streets, or at boarding places; receiving instruction from any one outside of the College without special permission; violation of any oral rules of the faculty.

RELIGIOUS CULTURE.

Chapel exercises, consisting of Scripture reading, singing and prayer, are held daily, except Saturday and Sunday, in the College Chapel, which all students are required to attend.

Students are also required to attend public worship in one of the churches once on Sunday, as they or their parents or guardians may elect, and are encouraged to attend the Sunday School, the weekly meetings of the Epworth League, and the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Association. Every effort is made to surround the young people committed to the care of the College with wholesome religious influences. Many students are active in religious work in the various churches and Sunday Schools of the city.

DEPOSIT OF MONEY.

Money can be deposited with the Treasurer for safe-keeping. Parents will do well to note this fact. For many reasons, it is unwise to give young persons away from home control of large sums of money. Parents should require their children to keep an accurate account of their expenses while at school.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATIONS.

Literary Societies. As well organized literary societies impart a special training in public speaking and in parliamentary practice, which may be of much advantage to the students, the College encourages the work of these societies in every way. Four societies, all in a flourishing condition, are maintained.

The Goethenia Society is composed of young men of advanced collegiate standing. It is the oldest of the literary societies.

The Germania Verein is composed of young men, who are sufficiently advanced in German to use this medium in public address.

The Garfield Society offers special advantage to younger students. Either English or German may be used.

The Philomathia Society gives the lady students an opportunity to gain literary and parliamentary skill.

The Oratorical Associations. Of these there are two, one English, the other German. All Collegiate students, who have been in attendance at College for one year, are members. The oratorical contests, which are held annually, offer opportunity for and incentive to special efforts in oratory.

Central Wesleyan College is a member of the Missouri Collegiate Oratorical Association and is represented in the annual contest of this association.

Young Men's Christian Association. This Association is well organized, and does a most useful work. A large per cent. of the students are actively connected with it and are zealous to forward its work. Its contribution to the safety of young men removed for the first time from the restraints of home life can hardly be overestimated. It furnishes a point about which the religious life may center.

Young Women's Christian Association. The Y. W. C. A., organized in 1903, is a great stimulus to the religious life of the young woman of the College and of the City. Meetings are held each Tuesday evening in Philomathia Hall.

The Epworth Leagues of the city are composed largely of students and are important factors in their religious development.

SCHOLARSHIPS, LOANS AND PRIZES.

There are a number of scholarships and stipends open to students of Central Wesleyan College as explained below. Beneficiaries of these funds are expected to board at the Institution so long as there are available rooms.

The Brown Memorial Scholarship was established by Mrs. Addison H. Brown formerly of Pacific, Mo., now of Warrenton, in memory of her deceased husband. The interest on the principal of $5,000 is used for the education of one or more worthy students in Central Wesleyan College. Awarded to Miss Alice Richmond of Old Orchard, Mo., in 1910-11.

The Ammann Fund. By the bequest of Mrs. Ammann of Decatur, Ill., a fund of $15,000 has become available for the assistance of needy and worthy students, who are preparing for the ministry. The awards were made by the Faculty.

The Wehrmann Scholarship was founded by Louis Wehrman for the benefit of worthy graduates of the Orphan Home School. The income amounting to $50.00 is awarded by the Faculty in the form of free tuition in the Academy or College.

The Hollman and the Niedringhaus Stipends, amounting to $125.00 a year, are awarded annually by the Faculty to needy students, who rank high in scholarship.

High School Scholarships amounting to $36.00 are awarded to graduates of first class high schools, who rank high in moral character and scholarship, said award to cover the tuition for a college course for the Freshmen year. The applicant must send a testimonial of character and a statement of rank in scholarship, certified by the proper officer, to the President of Central Wesleyan College.

District Scholarships.. One scholarship, covering the college tuition for the Freshman year has been set apart for each District of the patronizing conferences. The District Superintendents are authorized to appoint as beneficiaries honor graduates from a first class High School within the bounds of their respective Districts.

Academic Scholarships covering the tuition for the first term of the school year in the Academy of Central Wesleyan College are awarded annually to all the graduates of the rural public schools of Warren County.

Service Scholarships. Each year a number of students work their way through college, wholly or in part. The Faculty assigns a number of places on the domestic force to worthy and needy applicants. These places yield an income of from twenty-five to fifty dollars. Profitable employment may also be found about the premises of professors and citizens of Warrenton.

Loans from the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church may be had on certain conditions. The loans bear no interest while the student is in College, but the principal must be repaid after the student enters upon his vocation. If repaid within five years, no interest is charged.

Oratorical Prizes. Through the kindness of Mrs. M. E. Kriege of Denver, Colo., and another friend of the school, four prizes are offered annually for the best orations in English and German, two of fifteen dollars each and two of ten dollars each.

The first prize was awarded in 1911 to Paul E. Beck; the second to Frank Lee Ling.

COLLEGE BOOK STORE.

A book store is maintained at the College for the convenience of students. It is in charge of a student appointed by the Faculty. All text books used in the classes, as well as stationery, pennants, etc., are kept in stock.

BOARD AND ROOMS.

The new dining room and the commodious dormitories for men and women are conveniently located with reference to the other College Buildings. There is but little exposure in winter and delightful shade in summer. A large number of students choose to room and board at the institution because of the close fellowship with other students and because of the supervision of the Faculty. Each room is provided with steam heat, electric lights and the necessary furniture. The charges for board and rooms are made for a term and must be paid in advance.

As it is impossible to accommodate all the students in the College Dormitories, they may board and room with private families in the city, who pledge themselves to observe the rules of the College. A list of such approved boarding places will be posted on the bulletin board. Students boarding in private homes are under the same rules as those living in the Dormitories. Men and women are not permitted to occupy rooms in the same home.

All contemplated changes of boarding places by students rooming in the Ladies' Home, Eisenmayer Hall, or elsewhere, must be reported to the president one week before the change is to be made, and must meet with his approval. Students having engaged a room are expected to keep it for at least a term.

Eisenmayer Hall, besides being the home of one of the professors and his family, has accommodations for about sixty men. Application for rooms should be made in June or as early thereafter as possible. Students now occupying rooms in the Dormitories may retain them for the following year by making a deposit of two dollars, which will be applied on the board. Rooms not thus reserved can not be held, should there be other applicants for them. Students must take the rooms assigned them, but change of room in the same building may take place at any time by consent or on request of the Superintendent. Students may room alone by paying an additional price. Each student should bring with him two sheets, two pillow cases, a blanket or comfort, two towels and a pillow. Bedding may be rented at the institution for a nominal price. He may also bring rugs, pictures, pillows and pennants and make his room look home-like. The charges for board and room in Eisenmayer Hall will be $29.25 for a term of nine weeks.

The Ladies' Home, which has been remodeled and enlarged this year, will accommodate about fifty lady students. The home is beautifully situated, neatly furnished and equipped with modern conveniences. The ladies are under the special care of a Preceptress and the Superintendent's family. Students furnish their own sheets, pillow cases, blankets, spreads, towels, napkins and napkin rings, all of which should be plainly marked.

Bedding may be rented at the institution for a nominal price. A spoon and glass for use in the room and adornments which will make the room home-like, are very desirable. A girl's wardrobe should be simple and serviceable, and should include mackintosh, rubbers and umbrella. As little dressmaking, dentistry etc., as possible should be left to be done while at school. Application for rooms should be made in June or as soon thereafter as possible. The charge for board and room in the Ladies' Home is $31.50 per term of nine weeks.

For further information regarding board and lodging address Rev. H. Zimmermann, Superintendent, Warrenton, Mo.

GENERAL COUNSEL.

Arrange your plans to enter College September 18, the beginning of the school year, and endeavor to stay to the end of the year. Come with the determination of giving yourself wholly to study. Be careful in the choice of your companions. Avoid extravagance of every kind. Be determined to win the respect of teachers and fellow-students by studious habits and respectful conduct.

As the College Campus is midway between the Warrenton and Truesdale Stations, students may get off at either station, though conveyances are not generally at hand in Truesdale. Members of the Y. M. C. A. reception committee will meet all trains during the opening days of school to greet new students and to look after their welfare. At Warrenton, take the bus or walk two blocks south and four blocks east to the College grounds. At Truesdale walk west about four blocks. The first door to the right as you enter the College Building leads to the President's office. The Superintendent may be found in the Ladies' Home on the opposite side of the street. In either office new students will receive immediate attention.

DEPARTMENTS.

The work of Central Wesleyan College is carried on in various Departments or Schools, each of which will be described in detail on succeeding pages and in the following order; The College of Liberal Arts, The Academy, The Normal School and Summer School, The School of Business, The Conservatory of Music, Art and Oratory, Physical Culture, The German Theological Seminary.

Any further information in regard to the College or any of its departments will be cheerfully given. Address,

OTTO E. KRIEGE, President.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission to the College of Liberal Arts must be at least sixteen years of age and must present testimonials of good moral character, and, if from other colleges, evidence of honorable dissmissal. They must also present certificates of scholarship from the institution which they last attended, showing in detail the studies pursued in preparation for college. This certificate must contain particular statements as to the text books used in preparation and the exact amount of work done in each study, as explicitly specified in the blank forms furnished by the College.

It is very important that students register promptly on the opening day of the collegiate year and be in attendance at the first recitations. All classification is tentative. Full standing will not be given until the student has shown that he can pursue college studies with success.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS.

For entrance to the Freshmen Class sixteen units are required. The unit is a course of study prescribed for one school year of at least 35 weeks, requiring four or five forty-five minute recitation periods per week. Of these sixteen units, thirteen are prescribed and three are optional, as follows:

Prescribed, 13 Units—

1. English, Higher Grammar, Rhetoric, Literature, 3 units.
2. Mathematics, Algebra, through quadratics, Plane and Solid Geometry and Advanced Algebra, 3 units.
3. Latin, 3 units.
4. French, German or Greek, 2 units.
5. History (Ancient) 1 unit.
6. Science, Physics, 1 unit.

Optional, 3 units, to be offered from the following studies or their equivalents:

1. Latin, fourth year, 1 unit, (Candidates, who elect the Classics in the College, must present four units in Latin).
   1 unit.
2. Science (Zoology and Botany, or Physiography and Physiology.)
3. History (English or American), 1 unit.
4. Economics and Civics, 1 unit.
5. History of Education and Pedagogy, 1 unit.

A student presenting thirteen units may rank as a conditioned Freshmen. These conditions must be removed within a year.

Graduates from the Academy of Central Wesleyan College are admitted without question to the Freshmen Class. Graduates from other schools of good standing will be admitted provided they have done similar and equivalent work.

Candidates for advanced standing beyond the Freshmen class must give evidence of their fitness for advanced work either by examination or by credentials from another institution of good standing.

CLASSIFICATION AND GRADUATION.

Students who present at least thirteen entrance units are ranked as Freshmen. Those who have completed thirty-two semester hours and have removed all entrance conditions are ranked as Sophomores; those who have completed sixty-four semester hours are Juniors; those who have completed ninety-six semester hours are Seniors. The completion of one-hundred and twenty-eight semester hours entitles the student to graduation.

A semester hour or credit is one sixty minute period of prepared work per week for eighteen weeks. Two laboratory hours are the equivalent of one lecture or recitation period.

The maximum of work allowed a student except by special permission of the Faculty, is thirty-two semester hours a year; the minimum, except in the Senior year is twenty-six semester hours.

Change of studies will be permitted only during the first two weeks of a semester.

As a rule a course of study cannot be completed in less than four years, sometimes an additional year will be needed. The ambitious attempt to complete the course in less than four years usually results in impaired health and a lower grade of work than the student is capable of doing if the course is taken as planned. While no artificial obstacle will be opposed to the more rapid progress of gifted and industrious students, it will be insisted that regard be paid to health and to thoroughness of preparation.

GROUP STUDIES. MAJORS AND MINORS.

On succeeding pages the prescribed and the elective studies in the various groups are given in tabular form and explained in detail. Each of these groups gives emphasis to a special line of work. Group I emphasizes the Classics; Group II, the Modern Languages; Group III, Philosophy. These three lead to the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Group IV. emphasizes the Natural Sciences and Mathematics and leads to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Each candidate for graduation must select not later than the beginning of the Sophomore year one of these groups and adhere to it throughout his College career. Changes can be made only with the consent of the committee on classification. This group will constitute his Major, in which he must secure credit to the amount of at least 20 semester hours. The minors are made up of the other prescribed and elective studies. Within these four leading majors; (the Classics, Modern Languages, Philosophy, Natural Sciences and Mathematics), the following other Majors may be selected for purposes of specialization: Biblical Language and Literature; Biology and Geology; Chemistry and Physics; English; German; Greek; History; Latin; Mathematics and Astronomy.

In the appended tables, the figures enclosed in parentheses indicate the number of semester hours' credit that will attend the successful completion of the course indicated. They correspond strictly to the aggregate number of hours spent in recitation per week in one or two semesters during which the studies are in progress. The Roman numerals and the unenclosed Arabic figures refer to the detailed statement of studies given on subsequent pages.

COLLEGIATE COURSES IN DETAIL

The following statements show the scope and extent of the courses given, and to some extent the methods pursued. The credit in semester hours is also given.

I. BIBLICAL LITERATURE.

Professor Stueckemann and Professor Weiffenbach.

1. Introduction to the Bible. First semester, 2 hours.

2. History of the Jews to the Christian era. First semester, 3 hours. The Life of Christ and the history of the Apostolic Church. Second semester, 3 hours.

3. Evidences of Christianity and Theism. Second semester, 2 hours.

4. Hebrew—Hebrew Grammar, exercises in writing Hebrew; translating parts of Genesis, Kings, and the book of Ruth complete. One year, 10 hours.

5. Hebrew Advanced—Translating selected Psalms, Amos and the Servant Jahveh passages of Isaiah with exegetical notes. One year, 6 hours.

6. New Testament Greek—A thorough knowledge of the Greek New Testament is the aim. Elementary and advanced grammars are used, meeting the needs of the students. Special attention is given to the grammatical and lexical peculiarities of the New Testament Greek. The first semester is devoted to the study of the Gospel of St. Luke. The second to the more important Pauline Epistles. One year, 6 hours.

7. Avanced New Testament Greek.—Quantity reading of the New Testament. Rapid and accurate translation with exegetical notes. Only for advanced students. One year, 4 hours.

8. Seminar for the special study of the Pauline Terminology will be arranged, if called for. Open only to those who have taken 6 and 7. One year, 2 hours.

9. A Study of Missions.—The best methods of introducing Christianity; the effects upon the life and conduct of the heathen individually; the Christian religion, the forerunner of civilization. Second semester, 2 hours.

II. ENGLISH.

Prof. Vosholl and Miss Holtz.

The College Courses in English are open to those who have completed three years of Academic English.

1. Rhetoric—The purpose is to broaden and deepen the knowledge of rhetoric obtained in the Academy, and to develop the power of clear and forceful expression. A special study is made of the prose forms of description, narration, exposition and argument. Two hours a week. Specimen prose selections from standard authors. Two hours a week. Weekly and fortnightly themes. One year, 8 hours.

2. Literature.—A general view of the development of English Literature with reference to contemporary history. Careful reading and study of representative authors, illustrating the different periods. Note books, reports, analyses and essays. One year, 10 hours.

3. The Romantic Period.—Elective for those who have had courses 1 and 2. An intensive study of Cowper, Burns, Wordsworth, Coleridge, Scott, Byron, Shelly, and Keats. First semester, 3 hours.

4. The Victorian Era.—Elective for those who have had courses 1 and 2. Tennyson, Browning, Matthew Arnold, and others. Second semester, 3 hours.

5. Shakespeare—Representative plays are read and discussed. Elective for those who have had courses 1 and 2. One semester, 2 hours.

6. The Modern English Novel.—Elective for those who have had courses 1 and 2. Discussion, reports, criticism. This course requires much reading. One semester, 2 hours.

7. Oratory.—The first term takes up a study of pronunciation, vocal purity and naturalness. Exercises in correct breathing, control of the organs of speech, placing the voice and purity of tone are given. During the second term vocal energy, orations, emphasis and extemporaneous speaking are studied. Text: Cumnock's Choice Readings. First semester, 2 hours.

8. Oratory Advanced.—This course is arranged for those who wish to give special study to the art of public speaking as followed by ministers, lecturers and readers. The work includes the study of the psychology of public speaking and the study of master orations. Special stress is laid on voice technique, bodily expression and argumentation, Second semester, 2 hours.

III. FRENCH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

Professor Sauer.

The foundation for the course in French is laid in a thorough study of the grammar. Beyond this, the aim is to acquaint the student with the best literature of France. Composition, both as translation and original work, is continued during the entire course. Especial attention is paid to the conversational language.

1. Elementary Grammar.—Easy readings from modern colloquial French, about 200 pages. Practice in speaking and writing French. One year, 8 hours.

2. Readings from the more difficult modern French authors, about 500 pages. The chief aim of the course is to enable the students to acquire a vocabulary of the words and phrases in use in every day life. Composition and review of syntax. One year, 6 hours.

3. An advanced course in reading and composition. One year, 4 hours.

IV. GERMAN.

Professor Hohn.

1. The essentials of German Grammar—Readings in easy narrative prose, composition and conversation based on the texts used.

Texts—Collar's First Year German, Guerber's "Märchen und Erzählungen," Mueller and Wenckebach's "Glück Auf." One year, 10 hours.

2. Grammar study continued—Joynes and Wesselhoeft's German Grammar used. Reading of easy German stories, such as: Storm's "Immensee"; Wildenbruch's "Das Edle Blut"; Hilleru's "Höher als die Kirche," Rosegger's "Waldheimat." Conversation and composition based on readers and grammar text. The chief aim of this course is to acquire vital and fruitful appreciation of German literature of medium difficulty. One year, 10 hours.

3. A course for students who read and speak German with considerable ease. A drill on the rudiments of grammar is extended through the whole year together with a study of German lyric poetry of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century. Composition partly original, partly based on the texts used. Texts are: Lyon's "Handbuch der Deutschen Sprache," Wesselhoeft's "German Composition," Hatfield's "Lyrics and Ballads," Göthe's "Hermann und Dorothea." One year 6 hours.

4. A more scientific study of German syntax followed by the classical drama; characteristic dramas of Lessing, Göthe, Schiller, Kleist and Grillparzer are read. The life of these poets is studied from English and German biographies and some of their other works, besides those read in class, are read and reviewed. One year, 6 hours.

5. (a) Rhetoric and Composition, Logic. (b) A critical study of the modern drama. Works by Sudermann, Hauptmann, Lienhard, Ernst and Wildenbruch are taken up. One year, 4 hours.

6. (a) Essentials of phonetics and historical grammar. This course furnishes those who intend to teach a scientific basis for work in pronunciation and grammar. (b) History of Germany and German literature. Text: Klee's "Grundzüge der deutschen Literaturgeschichte," Heyse's "Deutsche Grammatik," Biedermann's "Deutsche Volks-und Kulturgeschichte." One year, 6 hours.

V. GREEK LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

Professor Wellemeyer.

Students taking the classical course should present at least one year of Greek as an entrance requirement.

1. Greek 1. Grammar and exercises—The Story of Cyrus. One year, 10 hours.

2. Xenophon, Anabasis I-IV. Review of Grammar. First semester, 4 hours.

Homer, Iliad I-IV. Oral reading, scansion of hexameter verse, studies in word formation, mythology, etc. Second semester, 4 hours.

3. Plato. Select-minor dialogues. First semester, 3 hours.

Greek Drama, select plays of Euripides, Sophocles or Aeschylus; Oral reading and scansion of Iambic Trimeter. Second semester, 3 hours.

4. Greek Comedy. Select plays of Aristophanes, or selections from Greek lyric poets. First semester, 2 hours.

Homer Iliad or Odyssey, a rapid reading course. Second semester 2 hours.

VI. HISTORY.

Professor Vosholl and Professor Helmers.

1. Mediaevel History.—The transition from the ancient to the mediaevel world; the invasions of the barbarians; Mohammed and his religion; the revival of the Empire; the growth of Monasticism and the rise of the Papacy will be treated in outline during the first term.

The second term will cover the Crusades; the rise of nationalities; Feudalism; the growth of cities; Scholasticism and the Renaissance. The text for the coming year will be Emerton: Mediaeval Europe. First semester, 4 hours.

2. Modern History—Attention will be given to the Reformation and the subsequent religious wars; the struggle for constitutional liberty in England; the Ascendency of France; the rise of Prussia and Russia; England's Colonial Supremacy and the French Revolution.

The second half of this semester takes up the Napoleonic Era; revolutionary Europe; the Unification of Germany and Italy; the Eastern question and the expansion movement. Supplementary readings are required as well as a thesis every term on an assigned subject. Second semester, 4 hours.

3. English History.—The main facts that have contributed to the growth of the English nation; the development of its government and institutional liberty. First semester, 4 hours.

4. United States Political History.—Formation of the Union, growth of parties, westward expansion, slavery, financial and industrial legislation, our relation to foreign nations. Channing's Student's History is used as text book. Second semester, 3 hours.

5. The French Revolution and the Napoleonic Era.—In this course for intensive study, attention will be centered upon the Old Regime and the remoter causes of the Revolution; the immediate causes and the States General; The Revolution under the National Assembly; The Legislative Assembly and the Convention; the Directorate, the Consulate and the Empire. Special emphasis will be placed upon the constitutional changes and the constructive work of the Revolution. Courses 1 and 2 are requisite for admission to this course. First semester, 3 hours.

6. Europe in the ninteenth Century.—The attempt to govern Europe according to the reconstruction made by the Congress of Vienna; agitations for popular government in France, Italy and Germany; the revolutions of 1830 and 1848. France under Napoleon III; the growth of Italian and German unity; the establishment of the German Empire; the dual system of Austria-Hungary; the third French Republic; national and international relations since 1870. Prerequisite, courses 1 and 2. Offered in 1912-1913, and in alternate years with course 5. First semester, 3 hours.

VII. LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE.

Professor Wellemeyer.

Students must present four years of Latin as preliminary requirements for entrance to Freshman Latin.

1. Livy.—Selections from books XXI and XXII; Horace, Odes, with drills in oral reading and lyric meters. First semester, 3 hours.

Horace Odes, completed. Roman literature. Cicero, Popular essay or selections of letters. Second semester, 3 hours.

2. Tacitus, Agricola and Germania or Dialogues. First semester, 2 hours.

Latin Comedy, select plays of Plautus or Terrence. Second semester, 2 hours.

3. Roman Satire, Horace and Juvenal. First semester, 2 hours,

Epistolatory Latin, Cicero and Pliny, Roman private life. Second semester, 2 hours. (This course may be substituted for course 2.)

VIII. MATHEMATICS AND ASTRONOMY.

Professor Frick.

1. College Algebra—This course includes such topics as the binomial theorem, logarithms, graphs, series, determinants, the theory of equation, solution of higher equations. One year, 8 hours.

2. Trigonometry—The general formulas for both plane and spherical trigonometry, practical applications of the solution of triangles, the theory of logarithms and trigonometric equations. First semester, 4 hours..

3. Surveying—A course in plane surveying, especially suited for civil engineers, comprising the use and adjustment of instruments, leveling, stadia work, triangulation, contour and profile mapping. Second semester, 4 hours.

4. Analytic Geometry—Including the straight line, circle, eclipse, hyperbola, parabola, plane loci, loci in space, and transformation of co-ordinates. First semester, 4 hours.

5. Calculus, Differential and Integral—Differentiation, expansion of functions, higher plane curves, maxima and minima, integration, areas and volumes, Second semester, 4 hours.

6. Astronomy is studied during the second semester. Besides the class room work a six-foot reflecting telescope with a five-inch objective is used for the study of sun and moon, comets, stars and star clusters. Second semester, 5 hours.

7. Theoretical mechanics including statics and dynamics. Elective for students, who have had courses 1 to 5. First semester, 4 hours.

8. Advanced Surveying.—Railroad, canal, city and topographic surveying. Elective for students, who have had courses 1 to 5. Second semester, 4 hours.

IX. NATURAL SCIENCES.

Professor Ebeling and Prof. Frick.

One year's work is required in Elementary Physics for entrance to the Freshmen year. Physiography and Physiology are suggested where an additional unit in Natural Science is required.

1. Zoology.—This course covers the principal facts of animal structure, development, and classification. They are illustrated by museum specimens and wall charts, in addition to the detailed laboratory study of representatives of the main branches of the animal kingdom. Three recitations and two laboratory exercises each week. First semester, 5 hours.

2 Botany—During the early part of the course, laboratory practice is devoted to the study of seeds, their germination, and the drawing of plant structure. The latter part of the course is devoted to the analysis of flowers, and collection, classification and preservation of plants. The college herbarium is freely used. Second semester, 5 hours.

3. Physiology.—An advanced text like Martin's Human Body is used. The general subject of Physiology is covered in a course of recitations and demonstrations. First semester, 4 hours.

4. Physics.—This course comprises a study of mechanics, molecular physics, heat, sound, light, and magnetism and electricity, laying special stress upon laws and measurements. Two recitation periods and two hours of laboratory work per week throughout the Junior year. 6 hours.

5. General Chemistry.—In this course the aim is to give the students a thorough knowledge of general chemistry, its principles, the elements and their chief properties, the atomic and the ionic theory. Three recitation periods and two laboratory periods, the latter of two hours each during the Sophomore year. 10 hours.

6. a Qualitative Chemistry.—The course in general chemistry is pre-requisite to this course. The work is chiefly laboratory work but recitations will be held when necessary. The reaction of bases and acids and the systematic analysis of substances will be studied.

b. Quantitative Analysis.—A course in the principles of quantitative analysis consisting of practice in gravimetric analysis of simple substances.

Both courses elective for those who have had course 5. One year, 6 hours.

7. Geology is studied in the first half of the Senior year. Laboratory practice consists in field work and study and determination of fossils and minerals, in which our museum collections of minerals and fossils are freely used. First semester, 5 hours.

LABORATORY FEES.

Chemistry	$5.00 per semester
Physics	$2.50 per semester
Zoology	$1.00 per semester
Botany	$1.00 per semester

X. PHILOSOPHY.

Professor Stueckemann and Professor Weiffenbach.

1. Psychology—Nervous structure and its functionary and genetic phases in the development of consciousness. Demonstration by apparatus and methods of experimental Psychology. Angell's Psychology serves as a guide. Judd's and Wilmer's Manuals are used in the work in experimental Psychology. First semester, 5 hours.

2. Ethics—Fundamental concepts and principles. Good and bad. The highest good. Conscience, Morality, Religion. Practical Ethics or the doctrine of Virtues and Vices in general. This is followed by a brief course in Theism. Second semester, 5 hours.

3. Introduction to Philosophy. This study introduces the student to the consideration of the fundamental problems of Philosophy; giving briefly their historic development and dwelling especially upon the attempts to solve them. The aim is not to develop idle and speculative reasoning, but rather to direct the truth seeker to a proposed solution by the way of logical and practical thought and a tolerant attitude toward all schools. First semester, 5 hours.

4. History of Philosophy.—In this course the student follows the efforts of the great thinkers to solve the problems of the universe from the beginning of Greek philosophy to modern times. Especial attention is given to the moral philosophy of Socrates, the idealism of Plato and the philosophy of the Golden Mean of Aristotle. Considerable time is devoted to Scholasticism, Bacon, Descartes, Spinoza, the English common sense Philosophers, the German Idealists and James' Pragmatism. This course closes with the Study of Christian Evidences. The aim of courses 3 and 4 is to develop a sober, intelligent, moral, and religious worldview which will be in harmony with man's whole and best nature. Second semester, 5 hours.

Class room discussions are an important phase of all the courses in Philosophy.

XI. RHETORICAL WORK.

1. Each member of the Senior Class will be required to prepare an oration of about one thousand words on an assigned subject the third term of the school year, to be delivered before the school in connection with the morning chapel exercises. One hour.

2. Juniors are required to write one thesis each the first and second semesters, of about eight hundred words, on assigned subjects to be read in connection with the morning chapel exercises. One hour.

3. Sophomores are required to deliver a declamation or read an essay of six hundred words the second and third terms before the school in connection with the morning chapel exercises. Freshmen who belong to a literary society are excused from rhetoricals. One hour.

XII. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE.

Professor Weiffenbach and Professor Vosholl.

1. Economics I.—This course gives a general survey of Economics, a study of the basic principles. Careful attention will be given to high prices, the tariff, monopolies, trusts, the railroad problem. An Advanced text book is used. First semester, 3 hours.

2. Economics II.—Much time is given in this advanced course to some of the more serious economic problems of our time. The Labor problem in all its important phases is studied during the third term. Public finance, public expenditures and public revenue, with special emphasis on the problem of taxation will be the class study for the term. Text books and lectures.—Elective for those who have had Economics I. Second semester, 3 hours.

3. Sociology.—The aim of this course is principally to present to the student the highest social ideals, especially the American social ideals. A systematic study is made of the origin, growth, structure and activities as well as of the problems, aims and purpose of Society. Term papers will be written on some of the more important problems of our day: temperance, crime, poverty, the city, the Negro, immigration. After this the theories advanced by Socialism for the solution of the complex problems of our day are critically examined. Text book, lectures and collateral reading. Second semester, 3 hours.

4. The Social Teachings of Jesus.—Elective for those, who have had course 3. Second semester, 2 hours.

5. An advanced course in the different school of Socialism will be offered to students who have had courses 1, 2, and 3. Second semester, 2 hours.

Free class discussion of topics is encouraged in the courses of Economics and Sociology.

XIII. ART, MUSIC, ORATORY, PHYSICAL CULTURE, AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES.

1. Art.—Work in drawing and painting may be credited toward college graduation on the recommendation of the principal of the Art Department. The maximum credit given is 4 hours. Mechanical drawing is required of Normal students and of students in the Science and Mathematics group of studies. Two hours a week throughout the year. Credit 2 hours.

2. Music.—Students who take harmony and theory, in connection with advanced instrumental or vocal work in the Conservatory of Music may be allowed college credit on the recommendation of the Director to the extent of 12 hours.

3. Oratory.—Private advanced work in oratory beyond the course outlined in II, 7 and 8 will be credited to the extent of 4 hours, subject to the approval of the principal of the department.

4. Physical Education.—Two year's work in physical training is required for graduation. Up to and including the Freshmen year students will be enrolled in course one. The second course may be taken at any time before graduation. Each course, 2 hours a week from October to April. The Maximum credit will be 4 hours.

5. Professional Studies.—Students in Theology may substitute professional studies not to exceed one quarter of the minimum of hours required for the bachelor's degree.

THE MASTER'S DEGREE.

The degree of Master of Arts is conferred upon Bachelors of Arts of Central Wesleyan College who have spent a year in residence at the college pursuing a systematic course of liberal, non-professional studies in any department maintained by the College of Liberal Arts, subject to the approval of the Faculty. This course shall exhibit not less than 32 semester hours of which 20 hours shall be devoted to the major subjects and the remaining to be correlated minors.

Graduates of other reputable colleges are eligible on the same terms as Bachelors of Central Wesleyan College.

The Master's Degree will also be conferred upon those Bachelors of Central Wesleyan College who shall exhibit satisfactory evidence that they have completed such a course in residence at any other reputable College or University, either in course or in connection with professional work or study, or who have pursued such a course in absentia by correspondence with this College or other reputable College or University, subject to the approval of the Faculty, during a period of three years following their graduation. A thesis on some approved subject will be required of all candidates for the Master's degree.

The requirements for the degree of Master of Science are the same as for the degree of Master of Arts.

Applicants for the Master's Degree must present their request before May 1, and pay the usual fee for a degree.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

Central Wesleyan College maintains an academic department for the purpose of preparing students for College and of furnishing a general academic training to those who can not enter upon a college course. The Academy is under the direction of a Principal and all instruction is under the supervision of the heads of college departments. Students of the Academy are under the same rules as college students, and the general equipment of the college so far as needed, is at their disposal. On account of its connection with the College, the Academy is pervaded by high ideals of character and of scholarship, and younger students are stimulated in their work by contact with the men of the college classes.

ADMISSION.

Students are admitted to the Academy by certificates from public schools or academies. Advanced standing will be given to those, who are properly qualified. For students, who desire to review the common branches and for others, whose school advantages have been meager there are classes in Arithmetic, Geography, Grammar, United States History, etc. These preparatory studies are carried on at all times.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The Academy course extends through four years and is equal to a good High School course. A student may earn sixteen units in the Academy, of which thirteen are prescribed and three are elective. Students intending to pursue the classical studies in College must offer four years of Latin. Students who select the Natural Sciences and Mathematics must offer an additional year of science.

Fourth year electives must include Latin for those who mean to pursue classical studies in College. Other electives are Agriculture, Zoology and Botany, each 1-2 unit. Advanced American or English History, each 1-2 unit. Economics or Commercial law, each 1-2 unit. Harmony or Oratory, two hours a week, throughout the year, each 1-2 unit. Drawing or Physical Culture, two hours a week throughout the year, each 1-4 unit.

GRADUATION.

A certificate of graduation is given to those who complete the Academy course. Graduation exercises are held on Tuesday of Commencement week, at which time certain members of the class give such public exercises as are assigned to them.

ACADEMY STUDIES IN DETAIL

AGRICULTURE.

The soil, temperature, enrichment and impoverishment of the soil, seeds and plants, garden and farm. The class room work is illustrated practically by an experimental garden and by study of farm methods. One semester.

BOTANY.

The course in Botany gives the student a knowledge of seeds and their germination, enables him to draw plant structures and to classify flowering plants intelligently according to an analytical key, such as Gray's "Manual of Botany."

CIVICS AND ECONOMICS.

(a) In Civics the candidate must study the organization of the village, city, township or county, and state government under which he has lived; the Constitution of the United States and the operation of the government under the Constitution; the election of appointment and duties of public officers; the division of functions between national, state, and local government; the constitutional guarantees of the liberty of the citizens; and should gain a general knowledge of the origin of our political institutions, especially their connection with the English government.

(b) Economics.—The nature of demand and supply, value and price under free competition and under monopoly, rent and diminishing returns, interest, profit, wages, the increase of capital and of the supply of labor, conditions affecting the efficiency of labor and of industry, international trade and protective tariffs, the elementary principles concerning money, credit, banking, bimetalism, and taxation. Laughlin's "Political Economy" and Fiske's Civil Government will serve to show the scope of the work required.

ENGLISH.

Three years are given to English. The purpose is to familiarize the pupils with proper language forms, to train them in the clearer and correct expression of their thoughts, and to give them some appreciation of good literature.

1. Grammar.—During the first year four hours a week are devoted to English Grammar. The sentence is thoroughly studied with much analysis and synthesis. The last part of the year words, their classifications and modifications, with constant reference to incorrect usage receive chief attention. One hour a week is given to letter and essay writing and the study of the simpler American classics.

2. Rhetoric and Composition.—A careful study is made of the elements of Rhetoric; unity, coherence, and mass as applied to the sentence, paragraph and whole composition; also diction and figures. About half the time is given to the study of illustrative selections from College Entrance Requirements in English. The course requires much writing: reports on reading, analyses, and essays.

3. Literature.—The careful study or reading of selections from the list of books named in the College Entrance Requirements. A definite knowledge of the subject matter, an understanding of the literary form and the structure of the works suggested, together with a knowledge of the biography of the authors and some notion of the literary periods in which they lived. Particularly should the student be able to expresse a sensible opinion concerning any book which he has read. Books assigned for reading should be taken up with the aim of getting clearly in mind the style and the main features of the subject matter, such as the plot, incidents, and characters.

For study and reading selections will be made from the following:

College Entrance Requirements in English.

Shakespeare: Julius Caesar, Merchant of Venice, Macbeth, As You Like It, Henry V; Milton: L'Allegro, Il Penseroso, Comus, Lycidas; Tennyson: Gareth and Lynette, Lancelot and Elaine, The Passing of Arthur, Enoch Arden; Pope: The Rape of the Lock; Goldsmith: The Deserted Village; Scott: The Lady of the Lake; Byron: The Prisoner of Chillon, part of Childe Harold; Coleridge: The Ancient Mariner; Arnold: Sohrab and Rustum; Gray: Elegy in a Country Churchyard; Longfellow: Miles Standish; Lowell: Vision of Sir Launfal; Whittier: Snow Bound; selections from Burns, Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats; Bunyan: Pilgrim's Progress; Sir Roger de Coverly Papers; Irving's Sketch Book; De Quincey: English Mail Coach, Joan of Arc; Carlyle: Burns, Heroes and Hero-Worship; Macaulay; Lord Clive, Warren

Hastings, Milton, Life of Johnson; Thackeray: English Humorists; Washington: Farewell Address; Webster: Bunker Hill Oration; Lincoln: Two Inaugurals, Gettysburg Address, etc.; Scott: Ivanhoe, Quentin Durward; Dickens: Tale of Two Cities, Copperfield; George Eliot: Silas Marner; Blackmore: Lorna Doone; Defoe: Robinson Crusoe: Mrs. Gaskell; Cranford; Stevenson: Treasure Island; Hawthorne: House of Seven Gables; Franklin: Autobiography; Parts of the Old Testament, of the Odyssey, of the Aeneid.

FRENCH.

1. During the first year, the work comprises a careful drill in pronunciation; the rudiments of grammar; regular and common irregular verbs; the ready use of personal pronouns; elementary rules of syntax; abundant exercises in grammar; the reading of from 100 to 150 pages of easy French, and writing French from dictation.

2. During the second year the work comprises from 250 to 300 pages of easy modern French prose (stories, plays, and historical sketches); frequent memorizing of a few lines of French (prose or poetry); and conversation exercises on the texts thus committed to memory; dictation; continued drills in the rudiments of grammar (adjectives, pronouns, irregular verbs, use of tenses, etc.)

GERMAN.

1. In the First Year—Drill in pronunciation; dictation; drill in the rudiments of grammar, i. e., the inflections of noun, pronoun, and verb; the use of prepositions, and the simplest rules of syntax; simple exercises in conversation; and the reading of from 75 to 100 pages of graduated texts, either from a reader or from editions of easy texts.

2. In the Second Year—A thorough review of the first year's work in grammar, supplemented by numerous exercises in translating from English to German; a further study of syntax; conversation, based upon the texts read; and the reading of from 150 to 200 pages of literature in the form of easy stories, plays, and historical sketches.

GREEK.

1. Greek Grammar.—The inflection of nouns and verbs; the principles of the syntax of nouns and of verbs; the structure of sentences in general, with particular regard to relative and conditional sentences, and to indirect discourse; versification so far as applied to the dactylic hexameter.

2. Xenophon.—The first four books of the Anabasis.

HISTORY.

1. Ancient History.—A brief survey of the earlier nations of civilization and a careful study of Greek and Roman History. Myers' "Ancient History" or some equivalent work is used as text. Readings and studies outside the text are required throughout the year.

2. Mediaevel and Modern History. A study of the Migration of the Tribes, the Founding of European States, Feudalism, the Renaissance, the Revolution. Modern constitutional government. Myers' "The Middle Ages" serves as text book. Topics assigned with reference to standard and special books.

3. American History.—This is an advanced academy course, based on some approved text like Channing's "Students' History of America." Outside readings, written work, geography and maps will be required.

4. English History.—A thorough study of the main facts that contributed to the growth of the English nation. An Advanced text like Montgomery's "England" is used.

LATIN.

First Year. Hale's First Year Latin or equivalent, followed by selected anecdotes, tales, stories of mythology together with exercises in the writing of Latin throughout the year.

Second Year. Selections from the commentaries of Caesar equivalent in amount to four full books. Exercises in reading at sight, translation at hearing, drills in oral reading of Latin, pronunciation, phrasing, etc. Grammatical reviews and writing of Latin throughout the year.

Third Year. Selected orations of Cicero, at least six, together with some of his letters for variety and interest; composition and grammatical studies, frequent practice in reading at sight.

Fourth Year. Vergil's Aeneid, six books or selections equivalent; reviews at hearing, sight reading, written translations, oral reading and scansion of Hexameter verse, comparative studies in English Literature.

MATHEMATICS.

High School Algebra—At least one year of study, covering the text of modern books on Algebra as far as quadratics, the latter included.

In Geometry one year and a half are allowed for Plane and Solid Geometry. Numerous original demonstrations are required, and problems in construction are frequent. Pupils have practice in varying the forms of figures used for demonstration. In solid Geometry models are used freely, in order to make clear the difference between figures in space and figures in a plane.

Advanced Algebra.—A review of Algebra and an extension of it through the subject of logarithms, requiring one semester.

PEDAGOGY.

The theory and practice of teaching together with the history of education forms the basis of this work. One semester.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

Tarr's new Physical Geography serves as a text book. The students are required to keep a record of the weather. Erosion, Stratification and similar phenomena are studied by means of the collections in the museum and by frequent field trips. One semester.

PHYSICS.

The student must be able to work simple numerical problems relating to falling bodies; levers; the simple pendulum; phenomena of liquids and gases, including the determination of pressures; the density of solids and liquids by means of the principle of Archimedes; specific heats, and heats of fusion and vaporization; the relations involved in Ohm's law; the simpler phenomena of sound; refraction and reflection and the size and position of virtual and real images due to mirrors and lenses. The student should also be familiar with the use of the vernier and with the metric system. Laboratory work is required throughout the year.

PHYSIOLOGY

Blaisdell's Physiology, (extended course), or an equivalent, is used as a text-book, with laboratory work of such a nature as to employ the pupil's knowledge of the facts and processes of chemistry and physics in the explanation of physiological phenomena.

ZOOLOGY.

Candidates offering Zoology as an entrance subject are expected (a) to make a careful and detailed study of at least ten morphological "types," (b) to be familiar with the general principles and phenomena of animal biology; (c) to have supplemented the laboratory work with field trips.

ART, MUSIC, ORATORY, PHYSICAL CULTURE.

For detailed information on these subjects see the note under the College Studies and the respective departments.

LABORATORY FEES.

Botany and Zoology, $1.00 each per semester. Physics $2.50 per semester.

Admission.

Students are admitted under the same conditions as apply to students in the Academy and College. For detailed information as to the studies see the respective pages under the heads of College and Academy.

The Summer School.

The Summer School for the year of 1912 will begin Monday, May 20th, and will continue ten weeks, ending July 27th. Tuition for the full term is $10.00. The Summer School is an integral part of the College and is fully approved by the State. The standard of scholarship, the quality of work done and the ideals of character and conduct are the same as for other terms of the year. Instruction is given by the regular professors and instructors. The entire equipment of the College is available for use during the session.

The Summer School is designed:

1. For teachers who wish to review or to do advanced work.
2. For young men and women preparing to teach.
3. For College students who desire to make up back work or shorten the period of the regular college course.

4. For those preparing to enter college, but find themselves deficient in one or more of the college entrance requirements.

5. For special students in any line of work offered by the College.

The State Board of Education stipulates that no student shall receive more than three credits toward a teacher's certificate.

Studies Offered.

Other Professors in the Academy and College.

Courses.

The aim of the courses is to give the student not only a thorough training in the principle of Bookkeeping, Stenography and Typewriting, but to give him the broader culture which is essential to a successful business life.

Two courses are offered in Bookkeeping, the one requiring the completion of the first three budgets of the Sadler-Rowe system, the other the completion of five budgets and requiring other advanced studies. The shorter course leads to a diploma, the longer course to the degree: Bachelor of Accounts. Ordinarily one year of resident work is required to finish either course. The course in Stenography and Typewriting leads to a diploma.

Time to Enter.

Students may enter at any time during the school year, but, if possible, it would be better for all those wishing to take the Bookkeeping or Shorthand and Typewriting Courses, to enter at the opening of school in September.

Positions.

Students are assisted in every way possible in securing positions. The demand for our graduates, both in Bookkeeping and in Shorthand and Typewriting is an indication of the good work done. Our graduates are to be found in St. Louis, Kansas City and many other cities, filling positions of honor and trust.

Tuition.

The tuition for a term of nine weeks is as follows: For the Bookkeeping Course $12.00; for the Stenography and Typewriting Course $10.00. Both courses combined $18.00. If paid by the year in advance, the terms are as follows: For the Bookkeeping Course $40.00; for the Stenography and Typewriting Course $35.00. The Bookkeeping and Stenography Courses combined $64.00. These prices include the use of typewriters and instruction in general penmanship, as well as other studies in the Academy or College.

A. BOOKKEEPING.

Many business colleges make a specialty of graduating young people as quickly as possible. The controlling principle in our School of Business is not in how short a time a student may graduate but how thoroughly he may be prepared to fill the very best position. A splendid opportunity is offered to students, who have not had the opportunity of completing a course in the elementary branches, as the general Preparatory Department offers all these studies to commercial students without extra charges.

Methods.

The most practical methods of presenting the subject of bookkeeping are used, the business transaction being made the starting point instead of the ledger account. The student transacts all business in his own name, uses current dates, makes out, issues, and receives all classes of commercial paper in a business way, handles college currency and merchandise and besides makes the necessary records in his books. The Sadler-Rowe system has been adopted, which is used in almost all of the leading business schools of the country. Besides training the student to transact business he is taught to pay close attention to the directions of his employer.

Individual Instruction.

The student does all of his work in bookkeeping in the school rooms under the supervision of the teacher, who gives him individual instruction whenever necessary. Each student is independent of the other and advances according to his ability in mastering the work before him. Some class-work, however, is done at times, in which the student is given a thorough drill in the theory of accounts.

Actual Business.

While engaged in actual business practice, the student carries on a real business. He buys from his fellow students, sells to them, receives college currency and pays it out, keeps a bank account, has dealing with wholesale houses, and other offices. In addition to this work in the school room, the student has dealings with students of other colleges, which enables him to do business by correspondence and to see the grade of work done in other schools.

Commercial Law and Commercial Geography.

A course in Commercial law is offered. Contracts, bills of sale, the principles of bailment, methods of entering into a partnership, the business of a corporation and the rules and regulations for holding and selling real and personal property, are some of the important topics presented to the student.

One semester will be spent in the study of Commercial Geography. The subject will be presented with reference to the importance of civilization, manufactories agriculture, lumbering, mining resources, and of the topography and climatic conditions of leading countries of the world.

B. SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING.

The demand for competent stenographers in this age of business activity is unprecedented; in fact the supply does not equal the demand. The immediate remunerative returns are greater than in any other branch requiring the same amount of preparation while the opportunitunities for advancement are much greater. More directors and presidents of great business enterprises have been drawn from the ranks of the stenographer than from any other class. It is their constant association with the details of business which enables stenographers to step into the higher positions.

Methods.

The Gregg system of shorthand is used. While this is one of the newer systems. it has made such rapid progress that it is now taught in more schools of the United States than any other individual system. The work of the first semester enables students to do light correspondence. During the second semester practical office work is done in the Business Practice Department and for the President of the College and different members of the Faculty. Speed drills and all kinds of dictation, business letters, legal and commercial matters, depositions, etc., follow. Excellent opportunities are offered for gaining practical experiences as reporters by taking down debates, speeches, college orations, lectures, etc.

Arrangements can be made for taking a combination course, consisting of studies from the shorthand and typewriting courses, and from either of the business courses.

GRADUATION.

Students completing either of the courses outlined below will receive the respective diplomas without extra charge.

ART DEPARTMENT

Miss Florence M. Stanley, Director.

"Art is man's pleasure expressed in labor." The person who possesses a working knowledge of drawing and painting, has taken a long stride in the line of a liberal education. The principle upon which this department is founded is to maintain in the highest efficiency the severe practice of academic drawing and painting, from life, from the antique, and from objects, and around this practice, as a living stem to group the various departments of Art Education.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

Elementary. Drawing from antique fragments in outline and general light and shade, together with practice from blocks and familiar objects.

Antique. Heads and figures from casts in full light and shade.

Life. The figure sketch class held one afternoon each week gives all students the opportunity to draw from life from the beginning. Any medium may be used.

Still Life. Drawing and painting from still-life studies, interiors, etc., in pencil, charcoal, pen and ink, water color, and oil.

Landscape Study. Drawing and painting from nature in pencil, charcoal, or watercolor. Outside classes in season.

Arts Crafts and Applied Design. The practical application of designs in basketry, leather, metal, bookbinding, block-printing, stenciling, wood-carving, etc.

China Painting. The instruction in this class covers processes and materials including the practical application of design to china, the use of tools and appliances, the properties of paints, bronzes, lustres and gold, the method of firing, etc.

Pottery. This course includes the making of useful objects from clay, and the placing of designs upon them. The study of the preparation of the clay and the glazes and process of firing.

Mechanical Drawing. Geometric problems, use of instruments, shop drawing, projections, intersection, penetration of solids, shades and shadows, and architectural drawings.

Accompanying privileges open to all students are the classes in Perspective, and History of Art supplemented by a study of masterpieces. Examinations will be given. These classes are recommended to all students as an essential part of a thorough art education.

There is no time prescribed for the course of drawing and painting. Each student is advanced individually. Certificates of Attainment are granted to pupils who complete the course in Art, and who have finished the studies of the Academic Course or its equivalent.

A concours, that is, a competition with judgment of the work is held in each of the classes at the end of each month. In this concours the studies of the preceding week are arranged in the order of merit and placed upon the wall, numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. The students thus have opportunity to compare their work with others, and to see what qualities are most highly valued. At the same time studies of the previous week selected for Honorable Mention by the instructor are placed upon the wall.

Those drawings that receive Honorable Mention are retained for the exhibition of students' work at the end of the year, and the school claims the right to retain selected examples permanently.

From time to time there are loan exhibits, which feature, in itself is an education to the observing art student.

Tuition.

Drawing and Painting for one term, three lessons per week	$10.00
Arts Crafts and Applied Design, for one term, one lesson a week	5.00
China Painting, for one term, one lesson a week	5.00
Pottery, for one term, one lesson a week,	5.00
Mechanical and Free Hand drawing. Two hours a week	1.50

An easel and board for drawing will be furnished each student, but for the use of an additional board, a charge of twenty-five cents each will be made.

Lock boxes for materials will be furnished if desired, at fifty cents a term.

Tuition fees must be paid in advance.

Fees will not be refunded on account of absence, but in case of absence of a period of over two weeks consecutively the student's time will be extended by a period equal to the time so lost.

DEPARTMENT OF ORATORY

Miss Laura L. Holtz, Director.

Elocution is the science and art of expression by means of voice and action. The study of Elocution purposes to develop individuality, strives for correct and refined pronunciation of words, and aims to create ease and grace on the platform.

Oratory 1.—The first term takes up the study of pronunciation, vocal purity and naturalness. Charts for correct pronunciation are made by each student. Exercises in correct breathing, control of the organs of speech, placing of voice and purity of tone are given. Miscellaneous selections are studied. Text: Cumnock "Choice Readings." Two hours throughout the semester.

Second Term.—Vocal Energy, Orations, Emphasis, Imagery and Extemporaneous Speaking are studied. Special stress is laid on the pupil's individuality. The development of the imagination in conjunction with which original descriptions of scenes are given by each student. Inflection and Cadence are studied with illustrative selections.

Oratory II. First Term, an advanced course is arranged for those who wish to give special study to the art of Public Speaking as followed by ministers, lecturers and readers. This term's work includes the study of the Psychology of Public Speaking, and the study of the master Orators. Two hours a week throughout the semester.

Second Term.—Special stress is laid on Voice Technique, bodily expression and Argumentation.

A number of recitals were given during the year, which proved to be not only entertaining to the audience, but very helpful to the participants.

One semester's work in Oratory, two hours a week is required of all students before graduation. For this course there is no extra charge.

Tuition for Private Instruction.

One lesson a week, per term	$6.00
Two lessons a week, per term	$10.00

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

Arthur A. Hoech.....Physical Director for Men
Laura L. Holtz .....Physical Director for Women

THE ATHLETIC BOARD.

This department is under control of a committee of five, known as the Athletic Board, composed of the Physical Director, two Faculty members and two students, the latter elected by the student body. Actions of the Board are of course subject to revision by the Faculty. The purpose of this Board is to secure the best possible conditions in Athletics, especially to insist upon two points: that the conduct of all taking part shall be fair, and that no student shall follow athletics to the detriment of his studies.

The Athletic Board for 1910-11 was constituted as follows: Prof. Arthur A. Hoech, Physical Director; Prof. Eugene Weiffenbach and Miss Laura L. Holtz appointed by the President; Lawrence W. Hartel and Henry A. Schoeppel, elected by the students.

REQUIRED WORK.

All students are required to take two years of systematic physical culture. They may be excused only on a physician's certificate of physical disability. Up to and including the Freshman year students are enrolled in course I, which consists of calisthenics, elementary apparatus work or military drill twice a week. Course II. may be taken any time before graduation. It consists of calisthenics, advanced apparatus work or military drill twice a week. The credit given for each course is 2 hours. The maximum of credit which may be earned is 4 hours, which also represents the minimum requirements for graduation. Students playing tennis, basket ball or base-ball receive time credit but not grade credit for one semester.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The splendid new College Gymnasium is supplied with apparatus of all kinds for class work in physical culture.

The work in the gymnasium consists of all forms of calisthenics and setting up exercises, drills with dumbells, Indian clubs, wands, etc., which develop quick thinking, accuracy of motion, and skillful use of the various parts of the body. The training corrects physical defects, develops good carriage, and benefits the whole system by stimulating the circulation and nutrition. An effort is made to make the gymnasium not merely a school for muscular development, but rather a place for recreation, in which mind and body are refreshed and strengthened. The aim is not to develop specialists, but to equip every graduate with physical vigor, without which no man can long survive the nervous strain of active life under modern conditions. Public exhibitions are given at stated times which add to the interest in the work. The exhibition given March 8, 1911, was very creditable.

ATHLETICS.

The Gymnasium and the Athletic Field give ample opportunity for legitimate and healthful games. The main floor of the Gymnasium is arranged for indoor games and basket ball. On the Athletic Field are a fine base ball diamond, a basket ball field and a quarter mile running track. Three tennis courts are also maintained.

To be eligible for any team, the student must carry "full class-room work" (not less than 16 hours a week in College or 18 hours in the Academy) and must not fall below 70 in any study or retrograde in scholarship during the playing season. The Faculty decides on the eligibility of the player, and upon the number of inter-collegiate games to be played. The declaration of his ineligibility shall become effective three weeks after it is made. The endeavor is to make all sports a source of moral as well as of physical strength.

Many intra-mural and nine intercollegiate basket ball games were played during the past season. A number of inter-class base ball games were also given.

MILITARY.

Military drill in colleges is recognized not only for its military, physical and hygenic value, but also because it gives to the student a certain mental and moral training, which he gains naturally during the drill exercises, for which thus far no substitute has been found. It teaches unquestioning obedience and confidence in another. It develops alertness and self-control. Promptness and neatness are inculcated. Above all, the uniform teaches one to honor the flag.

The cadets receive military drill under an experienced commandant, The guns used are Springfield rifles, U. S. army pattern, which, with accoutrements, the State furnishes free of charge. The Cadet uniform is similar to that of West Point.

The cap is the usual military cadet cap with gold embroidered C. W. C. device. These uniforms are made by the best military tailors under contract and can be secured at a very low price. Cadet officers and non-commissioned officers wear the West Point Infantry Insignia of rank. Students desiring to enter the College Battalion are advised to purchase one suit less at home, so they can buy a uniform here. In fact, all students would do well to buy this uniform as it is cheap and wears better than other suits and can be worn regularly.

This year the Battalion numbered 40. Sham battles and a few days encampment are interesting features of the year's work.

The officers are as follows:

Prof. Arthur Hoech, Captain; Louis Duewel, 1st Lieut.; Lawrence Hartel, 2nd Lieut.; August Nothdurft, 1st Sergt.; Fred Preul, 1st Sergt.; Henry Schmidtke, 2nd. Sergt.; Walter Lavender, 3rd. Sergt.; Herbert Feller, 1st. Corp; Wm. Wolfe, 2nd Corp; Elmer Lotz, 3rd Corp; Lawrence W. Emig, 4th Corp; Melvin Beger, 5th Corp.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

FACULTY.

F. A. NUNVAR, Director.
Piano, Organ, Violin, Theory of Music.
EMMA KOENEKE, Voice.
BERTHA SPITZE, Piano.
LA NETA KUHNE, Assistant.
CLARA KOELLING, Accompanist.
C. L. WELLEMEYER, Director of the Church Choir.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

It is the aim of this department to give those who come under its supervision in the regular course the best musical education possible and give those who come in for only a short time such instruction and help as shall be of great benefit to them and to inspire within all its students an inspiration for the highest ideals in art and every day life as well.

The director has had superior educational advantages, having studied with some of the best masters of Europe. The work during the past year was gratifying, excellent results having been obtained in all the branches taught.

The Conservatory is to music what the college is to a literary and scientific education. The number of students all bent on the same object, the friendly rivalry springing from it, the regularity with which lessons are given, the special advantages of hearing the best musicians, the opportunity of playing together with others of the same grade, and of performing in public, in fact, the whole surroundings of the conservatory are favorable to learning.

The branches taught are Piano, Voice, Organ, Violin and other orchestral instruments as well as Theory, Sight-Singing, etc. The time needed to complete the course will depend on the ability and industry of the pupil.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION.

The courses, which lead to a diploma, include a systematic study of Piano, Voice, Violin or Organ, together with the studies described under Musical Theory.

The literary requirements are as follows:
English, 3 units.
Latin, German or French, 2 units.
History, Ancient or General, 1 unit.
Science, Physics and Botany, 1 unit.
Mathematics, 2 units.

A recital played or sung from memory is required of candidates for graduation during the second semester of their Senior year. Students, who complete this course satisfactorily, will receive the Diploma of the Conservatory of Music.

A post-graduate course in Piano, Voice, Violin or Organ is offered by the Conservatory to students, who have completed the Diploma Course.

COURSES OF STUDY

MUSICAL THEORY.

Recognizing the absolute necessity of a thorough knowledge of musical theory, especially for those who desire to make music a profession, the department insists upon a thorough study of this branch. Harmony, Counterpoint, Canon, Fugue, Composition, Ear-Training, Sight-Singing, and Musical History are taught in classes or privately.

Courses 1 to 4 as outlined below are required as a minimum for graduation.

1. Sight Singing and Ear Training. Two hours a week throughout the year.

2. Harmony I. A general course in the treatment of harmonic formations. Two hours a week throughout the year.

3. Harmony II. A continuation of the first course. Two hours a week throughout the year.

4. History of Music. The evolution of music, its relation to other arts and its place in a liberal education. Two hours a week throughout the year.

5. Counterpoint. An exposition of the rules governing the union of melodies. Two hours a week, first semester.

6. Canon and Fugue. An analysis of the art of fugue. Two hours a week, second semester.

PIANO.

It is impossible to arrange a course of study that will be adapted to any and all students. It is the plan of the Conservatory to use such material as will be adapted to the needs of each individual student. It would be useless to attempt to give all the material used in the various courses. It is not to be understood that the students must go through all the exercises and studies here mentioned, nor that the material mentioned is sufficient in all cases. The supply of excellent teaching material is so large and varied that the experienced teacher will choose from a great many works for each individual student those things which shall best meet his needs. The Mason System of Technic as well as the Liszt and Deppe Methods are used, and technical exercises, scales chords and arpeggios are required in all grades.

The following outline will give an idea as to the difficulty of the material used in the various grades.

Preparatory.—Kohler Practical Methods. Vols. I and II; National Graded Course, Book I and II; Tapper Graded Course, Books I and II; Kohler Short School of Velocity; Alois Schmitt, Preparatory Exercises; Duvernoy op. 176 and 120; Studies by Loeschorn, Bertini, Gurlitt, Heller and others. Easy pieces and Sonatines.

Intermediate—Kohler, Practical Method, Vol III; Tapper Graded Course, Books I and II; National Graded Course, Book III; Bach, Little Preludes and Fugues and Two-Part Inventions; Studies by Heller, Doering, Berens, Le Couppey, Lemoine, Czerny op. 299; Doering Octave studies, and such other studies as may be required for each individual student. Pieces and easy sonatas by Clementi, Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven, are used in this grade. Sight Singing, Ear Training and Harmony I should be completed in this grade.

Senior.—National Graded Course, Books IV, V, and VI; Tapper Graded Course, Books I and II; Studies by Jensen, Heller Cramer, Clementi, and others; Kullak Octave Studies. Pieces by the best modern composers, selections from the standard works and sonatas and concertos are used in this grade. The literary studies and the work outlined in musical theory is required to complete this course, for which a diploma will be given.

VOICE.

The importance of studying vocal music cannot be overestimated. It is especially beneficial to the piano student. The more a pupil knows about singing, the better he will play his instrument. The instrumentalist who has no conception of the musical product of the human voice at its best, falls far short of the possibilities of expression in his instrument. The benefits to be derived from the Study of Voice Culture are being appreciated more and more every year, and the students are taking advantage of the work offered in this department in increasing numbers.

It is the aim of this department to cultivate an intelligent and artistic style of singing. The cultivation of the voice consists in the development of pure tone, and its easy, natural use and control in singing. Correct use of the breath, intonation, attack, legato and phrasing are the leading features of technical drill.

The well known Sieber, Root, Concone, Spicker, Luetgen, Marchesi, and other studies are used. Songs by the best modern composers as well as solos and oratorios and other standard works are studied.

Certificates will be granted to students who have acquired considerable proficiency in singing and are able to play accompaniments acceptably.

From three to four years are required to complete the entire course, for which a diploma will be granted. The graduation requirements are the same as for the piano.

VIOLIN.

To many the Violin will always be the most fascinating musical instrument because it approaches the human voice more perfectly than any other. For solo playing, for duets or orchestral work, for leading the singing in Sunday Schools, the violin is hardly to be equaled.

The department offers thorough instruction on the violin, as the course given below will indicate. The requirements for graduation are the same as for the piano. The diploma of the department is conferred upon graduates.

1. Violin Methods by Henning, Books I and II; Exercises by Dancla; Kayser, Book I; Solos by Dancla, Op. 89.
2. Kayser, Book II; Mazas Special Studies; Exercises by Schradieck; Solos by Dancla, Op. 118; H. F. Farmer and Bohm.
3. Kreutzer, 40 Etudes; Alard, Scale Studies; Forillo Studies; Selections by De Beriot, Farmer, Hauser and Bohm.
4. Mazas, 25 Brilliant Studies; Art of Bowing by Tartini; Concertos by Viotti; De Beriot, and Kreutzer; Rhode Caprices; Dancla, Op. 73.
5. Schradieck, Books I and II; Mazas Artists studies; Alard, 10 Characteristic Studies; Concertos by David Rode, De Beriot, etc.
6. Campagnolia, seven Positions; Cramer 33 Studies (by Abel); Bach, six Sonatas for Violin alone; Sonatas and Concert Selections, by Spohr, David, Vieuxtemps, Wienianwski, Mendelssohn, Bruch and Beethoven.

PIPE ORGAN.

The demand for instruction on this instrument is continually increasing. Almost every church contains a pedal or pipe organ and in many cases its beauties and capabilities are not known for want of a competent player. It is with a view to meet this demand that the department has arranged a course in organ playing which is equal to the work done in the piano and vocal departments.

A Hinner's Organ of modern type, having balance swell pedal and concave pedal board with radiating sharps, is used for teaching and practice, as well as a two-manual pedal Estey reed organ. As the technique required for organ playing is most readily and economically acquired by practice on the piano, students desiring to take up the study of pipe organ should first do the piano work as outlined in the preparatory and intermediate grades so as to be able to play polyphonic music readily.

The first requirement in organ playing is a legato touch, a knowledge of the effects of the various stops, and the independent movement of hands and feet; all other practice for the acquirement of manual technique should be done on the piano.

The following are some of the studies and compositions which are used in the courses; Clemen's Organ School, Whiting's First Studies, Rink's Best Organ School, Hymn Tunes, and compositions by Thayer, Volkmar, Lemmens, Guilmant and others. These may be followed by Bach's Little Preludes and Fugues, pieces by Merkel, Guilmant, Dubois, Sonatas by Mendelssohn and Reinberger and others and modern compositions by German, French and English masters; accompanying chorus, quartette and solo voices.

The time required to complete a course in this department and receive a diploma, depends so much on the technical ability of the candidate when he begins the study of the organ, that it is difficult to even estimate it, but a few will acquire the necessary skill and general musical education required in less than three or four years. A recital is required of all candidates for graduation. The program must contain a Sonata by Mendelssohn or Rheinberger or one of equal difficulty. The literary and theory requirements are the same as for piano. The diploma of the department is granted to graduates in this department.

ORCHESTRAL INSTRUMENTS.

Competent players on any orchestral or band instrument are given the opportunity for practice in the college orchestra and in the Military Band, which meet every week and furnish a part of the music in the amateur concerts.

ARTISTS' RECITAL COURSE.

The opportunity for hearing good music rendered by competent performers is of no less value than the class-room instruction. To give the students this advantage, a series of recitals is given each year, for which the best talent available is secured. The series this year included Mr. Vaile McIntyre, St. Louis, Organ Recital; Mr. George Scheffield, St. Louis, Tenor; Mr. Ernest Prang Stamm, Piano.

STUDENTS' RECITALS.

Among the most important incidental advantages of the Conservatory are the recitals, at which the students perform such pieces as have been assigned to them in their regular lessons. This gives the student an opportunity to gain self-control in public appearance and to become acquainted with many works that they otherwise have no opportunity of hearing. Ten such recitals were given during the year.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS.

The Musical Union is a mixed chorus, composed of about fifty voices. It meets every Monday evening for practice, taking up some of the many excellent choral works to be rendered in a public concert. During the past years the great oratorios: "Elijah", "Creation", "The Messiah", and many modern works, such as "Joan of Arc", "Ruth" and the "Holy City" have been presented.

The Church Choir is composed of sixteen voices. The Choir furnishes the music for the Sunday services and special meetings in the College Church. This year the cantatas "Immanuel" and "Ruth" were rendered.

The Ladies' Glee Club, composed of twelve ladies, and the Male Quartet, have supplied music for many of the college functions. Several concerts were given in near-by towns and one in Kessler Hall. There are a number of other Quartettes, whose services have done much to foster a wholesome college spirit, and to create a love for music.

The Orchestra numbers 14 pieces. Selections were given at various programs. The Orchestra accompanied the chorus and a splendid concert was given in May of this year.

Application for membership in the above organizations should be made to the respective directors at the opening of the school year.

TUITION.

Tuition must be paid in advance by the term. No reduction is made for lessons lost, except for protracted illness of at least two weeks duration, when the conservatory will share the loss equally with the student. Tuition for the term of nine weeks in any of the departments of the Conservatory is as follows:

One class lesson, per week	$5.00
One private lesson, per week	$9.00
Harmony I, $2.00; Harmony II, $3.00; Canon and Fugue	$5.00
History of Music, $2.00; Counterpoint	$3.00
Use of Piano, 1 hour daily, $2.50; 2 hours	$4.00
Use of Pedal or Pipe Organ, 2 hours a week	$2.00
Sight Singing and Ear Training, 2 hours a week	$1.00
Academic studies, each	$1.50
Collegiate studies, each	$2.00

GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

The Theological Department of Central Wesleyan College was recognized by the Episcopal Board as an official Theological Seminary of the Church, November 6, 1900. In the revised charter it is designated as the "German Theological Seminary." As such it aims to prepare young men for the service of the Christian Church, whether in the home land, or in foreign fields.

As the name indicates, the work in the Theological Seminary has been carried on in the German language almost exclusively and the graduates have had the German work in mind during their years of preparation. Mindful of the demands made upon a German minister in America, the Seminary aims to give its students a thorough training in English as well as in German, so that as bi-lingual ministers they may render the most effective service. Several hundered men, who have rendered efficient service in the various German Conferences, received their training wholly, or in part, in this school.

In addition to these many others have entered some English Conference, and are seeking to promote the interests of the Kingdom of God. Young men, who are looking to the ministry or the mission service as a life vocation, will find it to their advantage to take one of the Collegiate Courses in Central Wesleyan College and combine these with such Biblical Studies as are offered in the Theological Seminary in English.

The Seminary offers two diploma courses, a Classical Theological Course leading to the degree A. B., and the higher Theological Course leading to the degree B. D.

Four Professors give instruction in Theology. The enrollment for the present year was 38. Liberal terms can be made to students of Theology bearing proper credentials. For further information concerning the German Theological Seminary, write for the Supplementary Catalogue, which is published in German.

TO OUR BENEVOLENT FRIENDS

AN APPEAL.

Central Wesleyan College herewith makes an earnest appeal for help to meet the increased demands made upon it. The Trustees have begun a campaign to raise $100,000 within the next three years. It is earnestly hoped that this sum may be secured by 1914, when the semi-centennial of the founding of the school will be celebrated. The most urgent need at present is more endowment money. We should have at least $200,000.00 to meet the requirements of the University Senate, and to accomplish the work of a standard college. This appeal is made for three reasons:

1. Because a good beginning has been made, the present endowment amounting to $157,000.00.

2. Warrenton is located at a strategic point. There is no college of any other denomination nearer than fifty miles. There is no competing State School nearer than seventy-five miles, and there is no school of the same denomination nearer than 150 miles. It is near enough to the city of St. Louis, the Metropolis of the Middle West, to be in easy touch with it; to enjoy its advantages and to draw the support of donors, who appreciate the advantage of a Christian College located where students are comparatively free from the temptations and allurements of the large city.

3. Having always had a small income, the College has ever been conducted on the most economical basis and, therefore, yields the greatest possible good for the amount of money contributed. One of our donors who has given to many good causes, said: "No enterprise towards which I give is as productive of good, dollar for dollar, as Central Wesleyan College."

Its special needs are here mentioned, which may guide philanthropic persons in contributing to the cause of Christian education at Warrenton.

SPECIAL NEEDS.

1. A Professorship can be founded for $20,000.00, the interest of which sum will employ a good teacher for all time to come. The professorship may bear the name of the donor.

2. A Library Alcove is necessary for each department of the College. The interest on $500.00 to $1000.00 would keep such an alcove furnished with good books. The donor's name should distinguish the alcove, unless he had some other suggestion. We have several such alcoves, but we should have six more.

3. A Lectureship can be endowed with $5,000.00. We need a lectureship on Missions.

4. A Scholarship requires $500.00, the interst of which would pay for the tuition of some needy student. A scholarship for all of the expenses of a student amounts to $5,000.00.

5. New Buildings. Besides endowment we need the following buildings: A president's residence, a new, well equipped Library or College Building and an Astronomical Observatory. In each case we would prefer to have the name of the donor connected with his donation unless he may have other preferences.

6. Payment of Indebtedness. During the last few years the school has been compelled to build and equip to such an extent that it was impossible to meet expenses. The necessity of collecting largely in both of the patronizing conferences for the Preachers' Fund and other interests made it practically impossible to secure the necessary funds for our new buildings. The indebtedness should now be met by a well-directed campaign.

WAYS OF HELPING.

Gifts and Subscriptions. Gifts large or small will be gratefully received and properly credited. Pledges to pay a certain sum for five years in succession, or a subscription payable within a year are earnestly solicited.

Annuities. This form of benovelence is very convenient for those, who would be glad to devote their property to a good cause provided it could be made to yield them an income as long as they might need it. Central Wesleyan College will be glad to receive such gifts and agree to pay a fixed rate of interest during the natural life of the donor. A form of agreement is appended below.

Agreement.

This agreement made and entered into this.....day of..... 191..... by and between.....of the county of..... State of.....party of the first part; and Central Wesleyan College, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Missouri at Warrenton, Missouri, party of the second part:

Witnesseth: That for and in consideration of the sum of $1.00, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged by the party of the first part, the party of the first part gives and donates to the party of the second part the sum of.....dollars, upon condition that the party of the second part shall pay annually from the date thereof, on said sum of.....dollars, at the rate of.....per cent. during the natural life of the said.....party of the first part, and at the death of said party of the first part the sum so donated shall be the absolute property of the said Central Wesleyan College, party of the second part.

Witness our hands and seals the day and year first above written..

.....

State of.....County of.....

On this.....day of.....191.....before me personally appeared .....to me known to be the person described in and who executed the foregoing instrument, and acknowledged that..... executed the same as.....free act and deed.

In testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at my office in.....the day and year first written.

My term expires.....

Bequests. Several of the largests gifts C. W. C. has received, came in the form of bequests. A number of friends now living have likewise made provision in their will for the cause of Christian education. We earnestly request others, whom God has blessed with some means, to remember Central Wesleyan College in their wills. The following forms will be found helpful:

Form of Bequest.

In case a sum of money is bequeathed, use the following form:

I,.....of the County of.....State of.....being of sound mind, give and bequeath to Central Wesleyan College, a corporation, situated at Warrenton, Warren County, Missouri, and its assigns forever. the sum of.....dollars to be paid by my executor out of my estate, and the receipt of its treasurer shall be a sufficient discharge to my executor for the same.

I appoint.....of the County of..... State of.....executor of this my last will and testament.

Witness my signature this.....day of.....191....

The said.....signed, published and declared the foregoing instrument as and for his last will in our presence And we, at his request and in the presence of each other, have hereunto written our names as witnesses. .....

.....

In Case Land is Bequeathed use the Following Words:

I grant and devise to the Central Wesleyan College and its assigns forever the following described lands and tenements, situated in the county of.....State.....to-wit:

ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS

The following Register of the graduates of Central Wesleyan College and of the German College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, aims to present a list of the alumni arranged according to the year of graduation and to give some general information about each graduate. To the names of persons known to be deceased an asterisk (*) is prefixed.

It is the desire of the College to make this record as complete and accurate as possible. Graduates are earnestly requested to send to the Faculty Committee on Alumni (Prof. J. H. Frick and Prof. John Helmers), any corrections or added information, which will serve to make future editions more complete.

The register of the German College graduates is confessedly incomplete. Every effort has been made however to perfect the record. The committee will be grateful for further data. The list has been printed separately in order to facilitate scrutiny of names, dates and facts.

A very delightful reunion of former students residing in or near St. Louis was held at the Southern Hotel in St. Louis, March 17, 1911. After the banquet, at which Congressmen Rodenberg, Dyer and others made addresses, an alumni association was formed. The officers elected are:

President, Mr. Oscar A. Knehans.

Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. Chase Morsey.

Similar reunions are being arranged for with Kansas City, Mo., and Lincoln, Nebr., as centers. There is a C. W. C. Club at the University of Missouri. It would be well to have annual meetings of former students of both schools in any community where a dozen or more are to be found.

The annual Alumni Banquet will be held in the Gymnasium, Warrenton, Mo., Tuesday evening, June 6. The officers of the association are:

Mr. E. H. Winter, President.

Rev. M. Hermann, Sedalia, Mo., Vice President.

Miss Emma Koeneke, Sec'y.

Dr. A. W. Ebeling, Treasurer.
